Response to Election

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, Claims 1-15 in the reply filed on 6-27-2005 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Tanaka et al.(U.S.Pat.6,933,479).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tanaka in view of Takagi et al.(U.S.Pat.6,725,000). Tanaka discloses a fixing mechanism for use in image forming apparatus that shows many of the features of the claimed invention but fails to show a hollow cylinder or where one of the plurality of coils is explicitly having a different number of turns. Takagi discloses a fixing device that explicitly shows a hollow cylinder and a different turns number of at least one of the coils. It would have been obvious to use a hollow cylinder, for less weight and inertia, and a different number of turns so as to heat a center of a target such as a paper.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-7 and 10-15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Miyahara, Feldhoff, Yasui, and Takagi are cited to show structure similar to the claimed invention.
